CHAPTER 4

RSL WOMEN’S AUXILIARY FINANCES

Introduction

4.1 The aim of this Chapter is to assist Executives and Committee with the reporting, recording and the maintenance of RSL Women’s Auxiliaries financial records.

4.2 RSL NSW guide to keeping financial records is N. E Renton ‘Clubs & Non-Profits: Keeping the Books’, hereinafter called ‘Renton’s for Books’.

4.3 RSL Women’s Auxiliaries are encouraged to purchase a copy of ‘Renton’s for Books’ for use as the only reference to the keeping of financial records. ‘Renton’s for Books’ should be read in conjunction with the Constitution and By-Laws and should conflict arise the latter prevails.

4.4 This Chapter does not attempt to recreate the content of ‘Renton’s for Books’, but is designed to highlight the major areas auxiliary members should be aware of.

RSL Women’s Auxiliaries Returns

4.5 Each year the RSL Women’s Auxiliary Annual Accounts and Statement of Financial Position including a list of all individual donations are to be presented to the Annual Meeting of the Auxiliary.

4.6 One copy of the accounts and the list referred to in paragraph 4.5 shall be forwarded to the Central Council no later then the 31 March each year.

4.7 Annex E of this chapter contains the form to be submitted with the accounts to Central Council which provides for the notification of the Executive Officers for the coming year and forms the principle notification that could affect the forwarding of all correspondence and other material where a change of Secretary occurs. Please include first names of President, Secretary and Treasurer.

4.8 These forms are provided to simplify the Sub-Branch's and RSL Women’s Auxiliary obligations in making its returns under the above rule. They have been designed to simplify the preparation of Balance Sheets and Income and Expenditure Accounts and to eliminate the confusion that has existed in past years.

4.9 The most important point to remember is that every RSL Women’s Auxiliary is required to complete its returns and to lodge them with their parent RSL sub-Branch to allow returns to be made to RSL NSW.

4.10 It is the RSL Women’s Auxiliary responsibility to lodge audited copies of the account to their parent Sub-Branch.
4.11 Although Clause 37.1 of the Constitution requires the parent sub-Branch to forward to RSL NSW an audited copy of all its subsidiary organisation, 2.55 of this regulation directs that the RSL Women’s Auxiliary Committee shall supply to parent sub-Branch, copies of audited annual financial statements as adopted by Annual General Meeting of RSL Women’s Auxiliary for distribution respectively to sub-Branch records, RSL NSW and the appropriate Government Department.

4.12 It is further requested that you state on your Balance Sheet the name of the Bank with which you transact the RSL Women’s Auxiliary banking arrangements, i.e.
- Cash at Commonwealth Bank of Australia
- Cash at National Australia Bank
- Cash at Westpac Banking Corp. etc.

Australian Accounting Standards

4.13 RSL Women’s Auxiliary executives should be aware that the Australian Accounting Standards change from time to time. The information in this Chapter is based on the changes to the Accounting Standards which came into effect on 1\textsuperscript{st} January 2009.

Cheque Signatories

4.14 Renton’s for Books advises that the normal signatories for cheques are to be any two of the President, Secretary or Treasurer. This is also in accordance with the Constitution.

Bookkeeping During the Financial Year

4.15 Appropriate accounting records need to be maintained during the course of each financial year. Properly kept books will facilitate the preparation of:

a. periodical financial reports,

b. annual financial reports, and

c. returns relating to GST.
Cash versus Accruals Accounting

4.16 Accounts can be drawn up on a cash basis that is without any allowance for outstanding debits and credits at the balance date. A more accurate method and one which produces a more meaningful picture and which is recommended is the use of an accrual basis of accounting. Details of the two methods are described in Chapter 2 of Renton’s for Books.

Double Entry Bookkeeping

4.17 RSL Women’s Auxiliary are to use a double entry accounting system. Under this system each transaction gives rise to a pair of entries – a positive entry to one account and a negative entry of equal size to another account. An example cash book pages is shown at Annex A to this Chapter.

Periodical Financial Reports

4.18 Periodical financial reports, such as those prepared by the Treasurer for consideration at a monthly meeting, can be much less elaborate than the formal annual accounts. An example periodical financial report is shown at Annex B to this Chapter.

Audit

4.19 In accordance with the RSL NSW Constitution, RSL Women’s Auxiliaries are to elect two honorary auditors or appoint a qualified auditor who shall inspect the books, vouchers and securities of the RSL Women’s Auxiliary and certify their correctness as reported in the Statement of Financial Position.

4.20 Auditors must be given unfettered access to the books of account and any other documents required by the auditor to complete the task. The responsibility for RSL Women’s Auxiliary audit rests with the sub-Branch Trustees.

Investments

4.21 The responsibility for investment of RSL Women’s’ Auxiliary funds is vested in the sub-Branch Trustees. Trustees have a duty to ensure that funds are invested in accordance with the Constitution and the Trustee Act. Recommendations from the membership for investment of RSL Women’s Auxiliary funds should be made, in writing, to the Trustees who then act in the best interest of the RSL Women’s Auxiliary.
Insurance

4.22 The Trustees of a sub-Branch have a statutory requirement to ensure that all property and assets of the RSL Women’s Auxiliary are insured in accordance with the Property and Finance Regulations. Trustees must ensure that insurance of property and assets is based on a sound and up-to-date valuation.

Disposal of Assets

4.23 Assets (those items that are purchased by or donated to RSL Women’s Auxiliary) are only to be disposed of in accordance with Chapter 2 of the RSL NSW Property and Finance Regulation. Assets (which are still functional) may be auctioned or disposed of by tender. Assets should not be disposed of for less than the written-down value in the assets register.

Fundraising and Inwards Donations

4.24 Care must be taken to ensure that RSL Women’s Auxiliary wishing to fundraise, in any way, have been issued an Authority to Fundraise in accordance with Chapter 4 of the RSL NSW Property and Finance Regulation. This includes the conduct of any raffles and/or soliciting donations from the public. Authority Holders are required to authorise any persons or organisations that fundraise for them, in writing.

4.25 RSL Women’s Auxiliary are to ensure that any donations received for a specific purpose are applied only to that purpose. If this is not feasible (for example, because a project has been abandoned) then all donations concerned must be returned to the respective donors, unless they individually consent to its use for another purpose.

Functions

4.26 RSL Women’s Auxiliary advertising functions i.e. lectures, seminars, health promotions etc to the general public, must provide sufficient information for the public to act upon. The fact that there is no charge or that admission is by donation should be clearly spelt out. Similarly, the need to respond by a certain date or that people can just turn up should, be set out.

4.27 The failure to provide such vital information could well prove counterproductive. Apart from that, such advertisements can often be made to serve more than one purpose. In particular, they can also act as a means of attracting new members.

4.28 RSL Women’s Auxiliaries conducting functions (except in registered clubs/hotels) at which alcohol is sold as part of the activity are to comply with the NSW Liquor Act 1982.
Outward Donations

4.29 Outward donations are to be made in accordance with Chapter 5 of the RSL NSW Property & Finance Regulations and Chapter 2.44 of this regulation.

Membership Fees

4.30 Membership fees are exempt from GST.

CHAPTER 5

GENERAL INFORMATION

History of RSL Women’s Auxiliaries

5.1 The Australian Imperial Service of Women’s Auxiliary was formed in Phillip Street, Sydney by mothers, wives, widows, sisters, daughters and aunts of men who served in the Australian Imperial Forces in the First World War [1914-1918]. The Auxiliaries grew from this beginning to raise money for the welfare of men and women who served and their widows and families.

In 1947 at Returned and Services League [NSW Branch] State Congress, a resolution was formed that a Central Council of Women’s Auxiliaries be established. On 18 August 1948 Mr. K. Todd OBE, Country Vice President of Returned and Services League of Australia [NSW Branch] held the first Returned and Services League Women’s Auxiliary Congress at the Young Women’s Christian Association Liverpool Street, Sydney. 140 Auxiliaries attended from all over NSW, approximately 3110 members attending.

The first President was Mrs K. Todd [1948-1949], Metropolitan Vice-President, Mrs Pat Maitland with Mrs M. Hawkins the State Treasurer and Mrs Gwen Richards State Secretary.

The Returned and Services League [NSW Branch] of Women’s Auxiliary is a non-political non-sectarian organisation. It raises funds for the well being of our ex-service men and women and their dependants and current serving defence force personnel. It undertakes hospital and convalescent visitations, home visits etc. Its funds are raised through raffles, street stalls and other functions to support the Welfare and Benevolent Institution. This assists the Welfare Officers to carry out their duties in providing for the ever increasing need for Welfare.

At the appropriate times of the year Anzac Badges and Remembrance Emblems are sold.

Other fund raising avenues arise throughout the year in local areas and with parent sub-Branches.

The Returned and Services League [NSW Branch] of Women’s Auxiliaries were founded on fellowship and a desire to care for our communities. This continues to exist to this day. Members enjoy the friendship of like-minded women and the opportunity to develop welfare skills. Members enjoy visiting other Auxiliaries when they hold functions, sharing ideas and ideals.

RSL Women’s Auxiliary is a voluntary organisation, dedicated to raising funds for the welfare of veterans of all wars and conflicts.

Eligibility of membership is open to any woman over 16 years of age. Encouraging membership is the future of RSL NSW Women’s Auxiliaries to carry on this good work for years to come. Many present members have been in the Auxiliary for over 50 years, a lifetime of devotion to welfare of veterans.

12/03/2013
Act of Remembrance and Dedication

The Ode to the Fallen.

5.2 To be recited by the Chairman at the commencement of each meeting.

“They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old,

Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn,

At the going down of the sun and in the morning,

We will remember them.”

“Lest We Forget”
[Gathering repeats “Lest We Forget”]

Pledge Of Allegiance

5.3 Taken at the Annual General meeting and the induction of a new member.

I [name ...] do hereby swear allegiance to her Sovereign Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, her heirs and successors, and do hereby subscribe to the Constitution of the Returned and Services League of Australia[ NSW Branch].

‘GOD SAVE THE QUEEN’

Additional Membership

5.4 A person wishing to actively support more than one RSL Women’s Auxiliary by purchasing additional membership may do so providing:

- She declares her intention, to parent RSL Women’s Auxiliary, to seek Additional Membership.

- She pays the required subscriptions to the other Auxiliary concerned but is not issued with additional Badge.

- The Honorary Secretary of the parent Auxiliary notifies, in writing, the Honorary Secretary of the Auxiliary that the member wishes to join as an additional Member.

- The Additional Membership decision must be made at the next monthly meeting, by majority vote, of the Auxiliary the member wishes to join.

- She shall only be entitled to hold office, speak and vote at a meeting of the parent RSL Women’s Auxiliary in any one year.

12/03/2013
Request for Additional Membership must not be refused by either RSL Women’s Auxiliary.

Membership Badge

5.5 The Auxiliary Badge is to be worn on the Left Shoulder with nothing worn above the Crown. If a member is no longer a financial member, the badge must be returned to the Auxiliary Honorary Secretary who will forward the returned Badge to Honorary Secretary of CCWA. Badge will only be issued on receipt of:

- Members name and date of joining Auxiliary
- Cost of badge including postage $4.95
- $3.00 Affiliation fee to CCWA
- Badges are not transferrable

If a member becomes nonfinancial she must return her badge to the Honorary Secretary of the Auxiliary who in turn forwards the badge to Honorary State Secretary CCWA. On death of Life Member, Badge need not be returned.

Lost Badge

5.6 If a member loses her Badge she must notify Honorary Secretary of CCWA. A statutory declaration explaining the circumstances of the loss and the cost of the new Badge to be sent to CCWA and a new Badge will be issued.

Life Membership

5.7 Any member of an RSL Women’s Auxiliary is eligible for Life Membership provided such member has had 15 years continuous membership and 10 years outstanding service in an honorary capacity to the Auxiliary. It is not necessary to hold office to be nominated for Life Membership.

5.8 A member must be nominated and seconded by 2 financial members of an Auxiliary and a citation of the member’s service must be submitted to a General Meeting of the Auxiliary, approved by 75% of members at that meeting.

5.9 All nominations must be submitted only on the official form provided. (See Annex A)

5.10 Any other form of recommendation is not considered. The nomination is forwarded to the Area Councillor for her approval and is then submitted, by her, to the Life Membership Committee.

Life Membership Committee

5.11 The Life Membership Committee is comprised of a Chairman (Deputy President), 2 Country and 2 Metropolitan Councillors.

12/03/2013
5.12 At the 1972 RSL CCWA Congress, it was resolved that when the award of Life Membership is granted to a member, that Auxiliary is responsible for the cost of $65.00 to be sent promptly to CCWA office so there will be no delay in the award being made.

Transfer of Life Membership

5.13 If a Life Member transfers to another Auxiliary, no fees are paid to the Auxiliary to which she transfers.

5.14 If the Life Member transfers interstate she would retain her Life Membership of the Women’s Auxiliary Movement but would be governed by the rules of that State.

5.15 The Life Membership Badge is not returned in the event of the death of a member.

5.16 For record purposes, the Auxiliary Honorary Secretary must advise CCWA office of the death of a Life Member, including an Obituary of her service for inclusion in the “Garden of Remembrance”.

Transfer between Auxiliaries

5.17 A financial Member of any RSL Women’s Auxiliary may request, and be granted, a transfer to any other RSL Women’s Auxiliary, subject to the acceptance of the application for Membership of the RSL Women’s Auxiliary to which the member wishes to transfer.

5.18 The new Auxiliary should be contacted in writing, by the Honorary Secretary of the original Auxiliary, advising of the desire to transfer. This notification must be accepted at a General Meeting of the new Auxiliary by majority vote.

- A transfer form must be completed.
- The Applicant should be invited to the next General Meeting of the new Auxiliary.
- The original Auxiliary may not prevent any transfer of a member to another Auxiliary.

5.19 For record purposes, copies of transfer forms should be held by

- The original Auxiliary.
- The Auxiliary to which the member has transferred, with summary of service.
- A copy of Transfer Form to be sent to State Secretary at Central Council of Women’s Auxiliaries (See Annex B).

Qualifications for Award

The Award is the highest honour which can be bestowed upon an Ordinary Member of a RSL Women’s Auxiliary, and therefore, all recommendations should be thoroughly considered in that light, prior to submission.

Basically, in considering a recommendation of a member for the Award, the following points should be borne in mind by the recommending Auxiliary and the Councillor for the Area.

- A person recommended for the Award must have at least fifteen (15) years of continuous service as a member of an auxiliary, ten (10) years of which are considered outstanding honorary service.
- Service rendered as Patron or paid Auditor is not considered as qualifying service for the Award nor are services rendered to a Registered Club so considered.
- Recommendation for Life Membership and Citation for the Award submitted by the Auxiliary of which the member is an ordinary member must be approved by secret ballot at a General Meeting with 75 percent majority in favour, following one month’s notice of the nomination.

All recommendations for the award of Life Membership MUST be submitted on the Life Membership form and MUST be forwarded to the Central Council Area Councillor, together with a photocopy of the minutes of the Meeting where the recommendation was agreed upon. The Councillor will add her comments and will then forward the application to Central Council. Where the subject is President or Secretary of the Auxiliary or a Councillor, the recommendation should be signed by an official of the Auxiliary and not the Nominee.

The Life Members form will not be accepted unless all Questions are answered
Cost of Life Membership Badge and Certificate (unframed) is $65.00 to be paid to Central Council on receipt of a letter informing that the Member has been awarded Life Membership.

ALL PARTS OF THE FOLLOWING FORM MUST BE ANSWERED

- Forms must show date of meeting that recommended Life Membership
- The member’s signatures on the Life Membership Form are at times indecipherable. The printing of the names next to the signature is requested.
